

2022: Avian influenza surveillance sampling in wild birds

| Date tested                                   | Species           | Parish - location                   | Result                                 | Number of findings |
|---|-------------------|-------------------------------------|--|--------------------|
| 08/02/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | Trinity, Victoria Village           | Positive                               | 1                  |
| 09/02/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | Trinity, Victoria Village           | Positive                               | 1                  |
| 02/03/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | St Martin, Fliquet Bay              | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 08/03/2022                                    | Mallard Duck      | St Mary, Devil's Hole               | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 09/03/2022                                    | Sparrow Hawk      | St Brelade, Red Houses              | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 07/04/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | St Martin, Faldouët                 | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 14/04/2022                                    | Wild Crow         | Trinity, near Jersey Zoo            | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 27/04/2022                                    | Wild Mallard Duck | Trinity, near Jersey Zoo            | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 15/07/2022                                    | Herring Gull      | St Clement, Le Bourg                | Suspect Low Pathogenic Avian influenza | 1                  |
| 18/07/2022                                    | Herring Gull      | Grouville, Long Beach               | Positive                               | 1                  |
| 01/08/2022                                    | Black headed Gull | St Clement, Le Hocq                 | Positive                               | 1                  |
| 12/08/2022                                    | Gannet            | Trinity, Bouley Bay                 | Positive                               | 3                  |
| 07/09/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | St Lawrence, La Rue du Douet de Rue | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 10/10/2022                                    | Barn Owl          | Trinity, Rue du Nord                | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 10/10/2022                                    | Cygnets Mute Swan | Grouville, La Cache des Prés        | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 13/10/2022                                    | Greylag Goose     | St Ouen, St Ouen's pond             | Positive                               | 1                  |
| 18/11/2022                                    | Common Buzzard    | St Peter's Valley                   | Negative                               | 1                  |
| 18/11/2022                                    | Brent Goose       | Le Hurel Slipway, Grouville         | Negative                               | 1                  |
| Total number of wild birds tested 2022 |                   |                                     |  | 20          |
| Positive = 9, Negative = 11            |                   |                                     |  |                    |

