Hi [Redacted]

Really nice to meet you last week. As discussed, our HR department passed on a benchmarking report (attached) around the time our Law was introduced which assisted the Committee in agreeing a day rate of [Redacted]. I'm going to speak to HR for their view on the current rate to see if there should be any increases and will keep you posted.

Best wishes

Hi [REDACTED]

Good to meet you last week. Thank you very much for the bench marking report. Having skimmed it I would say that 300 to 400 per day looks about right.

Hi [Redacted]

I've been working on a draft recruitment pack for the Pan-Island Commissioner (see attached). It includes a job description, person specification, remuneration and time commitment and a plan for the recruitment process (with some draft dates highlighted in yellow). Could you take a look and let me know your thoughts? Perhaps it would be worth getting a teams meeting in the diary for next week? It's a States' week for us but I think it will be a short one. Are you free on Thursday 3rd November at 11:30?

Many thanks

Privileges and Procedures Committee States Assembly and Constitution Committee

Pan-Island Commissioner for Standards: recruitment pack

Job description

Jersey and Guernsey are seeking to appoint a Pan-Island Commissioner for Standards. Both Jersey and Guernsey are Crown Dependencies, separate from the United Kingdom, with their own distinctive legal and political systems. Although sharing the recruitment exercise, each Island will have its own legislation and Codes of Conduct and therefore the person appointed would have two distinct roles to fill.

The role of Commissioner for Standards in Jersey was created in 2017 following the adoption of relevant legislation by the States Assembly. In Guernsey, the role is newly created through the adoption of legislation in September 2022. This will be the first time a Pan-Island Commissioner is recruited to undertake this role for the two Islands.

The Commissioner will be an independent office-holder, formally appointed by the Assembly's Privileges and Procedures Committee (PPC) in Jersey and upon nomination by the States Assembly and Constitution Committee in Guernsey.

The role of the Commissioner in Jersey relates to the Code of Conduct for Elected Members of the Assembly (as set out in schedule 3 of the Assembly's Standing Orders) and the Code of Conduct and Practice for Ministers and Assistant Ministers. In Guernsey, the role relates to the Code of Conduct for Members of the States of Deliberation.

Jersey

The Commissioner's main responsibilities in Jersey will include:

- Receiving and investigating (or otherwise dealing with) complaints that either code has been breached
- Initiating an investigation if he or she believes that a breach of either code may have occurred
- Reporting to PPC on the outcome of any investigation (PPC has responsibility for forming an opinion as to whether a breach of a code has occurred and communicating that, and any recommended action, to the Assembly)
- Advising on any matters relating to standards of conduct of elected members or standards of conduct and practice of Ministers and Assistant Ministers, including proposals to change a code.

Guernsey

The Commissioner's main responsibilities in Guernsey will include:

- Investigating a complaint to the Commissioner that a breach of the code of conduct has occurred

- The ability to deal expeditiously with complicated issues in a confidential, sympathetic and sensitive manner

Remuneration and time commitment

The time commitment required will be driven by the number and complexity of the complaints which the Commissioner receives as well as the work involved in keeping abreast of international best practice. The current estimate is of the order of 20 to 25 days' work per year for both Islands. A day rate of £350 - £450 will be payable but this, and other aspects of terms and conditions, are negotiable.

The appointment will be for a fixed term of five years from 1st March 2023.

The Recruitment Process

The closing date for applications is no later than: 16th December 2022 at noon.

The States of Jersey and States of Guernsey are undertaking a joint recruitment process.

Applications will be reviewed by the Greffier of the States in Jersey (Lisa Hart) and the States Greffier in Guernsey (Simon Ross) in the first instance. You will be notified quickly as to whether you are required to attend a preliminary interview.

A recruitment panel will be formed to include:

- Chair of PPC
- Chair of the Guernsey States Assembly Constitution Committee
- Greffier of the States (Jersey)
- States Greffier (Guernsey)
- Jersey Appointments Commission (as non-voting chair)

Once the process has been undertaken, the panel would make a recommendation to both Committees on a candidate for appointment.

Shortlisting will take place during the week commencing 10th January 2023.

Shortlisted candidates will be invited to a final panel interview in Jersey during the week commencing 24th January 2023.

Please make it clear on your application if you have any availability issues during the process outlined above.

The approved candidate will be expected to meet the Privileges and Procedures Committee in Jersey and the States Assembly and Constitution Committee in Guernsey before a formal appointment is made.

Pan-Island Commissioner for Standards

Jersey and Guernsey are seeking to appoint a Pan-Island Commissioner for Standards. Although sharing the recruitment exercise, each Island will have its own legislation and Codes of Conduct and therefore the person appointed would have two distinct roles to fill.

The Commissioner will be an independent office-holder, formally appointed by the Assembly's Privileges and Procedures Committee (PPC) in Jersey and upon nomination by the States Assembly and Constitution Committee in Guernsey.

The role of the Commissioner in Jersey relates to the Code of Conduct for Elected Members of the Assembly and in Guernsey, the role relates to the Code of Conduct for Members of the States of Deliberation. A day rate of £350 - £450 (20 – 25 days' work) will be payable.

Main responsibilities include receiving and investigating complaints that either code has been breached. Reporting on the outcome of any investigation. Advising on any matters relating to standards of conduct of elected Members, including Ministers and Assistant Ministers.

This is an exciting opportunity to create a new pan-Island role which will enhance public perceptions of the standing and integrity of the political systems in Jersey and Guernsey. Candidates will have a successful, board-level or equivalent, track record within the public, private or not-for-profit sectors.

Applications to be submitted in writing no later than 12 noon on 16th December 2022 to Kellie Boydens, Principal Committee and Panel Officer, States Greffe, Morier House, Halkett Place, St Helier, JE1 1DD. For more information, visit statesassembly.gov.je or contact Kellie Boydens, email k.boydens@gov.je or call 01534 441075.

Dear Greffier's of Jersey and Guernsey

I've spotted this very interesting pan-island assignment to be a Commissioner of Standards and explored the candidate briefing pack in detail. [REDACTED]

Could you confirm the actual application mechanics, as the pack does not seem to explain where I should actually send my application by 16th December?

Jersey's elected parliament

Pan-Island Commissioner for Standards

Jersey and Guernsey are seeking to appoint an independent Commissioner for Standards. This is an exciting opportunity to create a new role which will enhance public perceptions of the standing and integrity of the political systems in Jersey and Guernsey.

Although sharing the recruitment exercise, each Island will have its own legislation and Codes of Conduct and therefore the person appointed would have two distinct roles to fill in relation to each Island's individual Code.

Candidates should have a track record at board-level or equivalent, within the public, private or not-for-profit sectors.

A day rate of £350 - £450 will be payable and it is anticipated that the role will be 20 – 25 days' work per year.

Main responsibilities include:

- Receiving and investigating complaints that either code has been breached
- Reporting on the outcome of any investigation
- Advising on any matters relating to standards of conduct of elected Members, including Ministers and Assistant Ministers.

Applications to be submitted in writing no later than 12 noon on 16th December 2022 to Kellie Boydens, Principal Committee and Panel Officer by email to k.boydens@gov.je.

For more information, visit statesassembly.gov.je/standardscommissioner or call 01534 441075.

Dear Greffier's of Jersey and Guernsey

I've spotted this very interesting pan-island assignment to be a Commissioner of Standards and explored the candidate briefing pack in detail. [REDACTED]

Could you confirm the actual application mechanics, as the pack does not seem to explain where I should actually send my application by 16th December?

Although sharing the recruitment exercise, each Island will have its own legislation and Codes of Conduct and therefore the person appointed would have two distinct roles to fill.

The Commissioner will be an independent office-holder, formally appointed by the Assembly's Privileges and Procedures Committee (PPC) in Jersey and upon nomination by the States Assembly and Constitution Committee in Guernsey.

The role of the Commissioner in Jersey relates to the Code of Conduct for Elected Members of the Assembly and in Guernsey, the role relates to the Code of Conduct for Members of the States of Deliberation.

Hi all,

The cut-off to receipt in Supply Jersey is this Friday (9th). Before I go on a receiving spree, I just wanted to double check that what I have listed below, can/should be paid for this year.

Could you please let me know by Thursday if there is anything listed that shouldn't come out of this years' budget?

Thank you.

Hello [REDACTED]

I hope that the Crown Dependencies meeting went well the other week (and [REDACTED] you are well rested). Lisa, I should just say that everyone at Headquarters sends their best regards and deepest sympathies over the tragic explosion in St Helier. We're all thinking of you.

One of the reasons why I wanted to get in touch is about the above advert, which I think is a brilliant development. I was wondering if in the new year you would both have some time for a Teams call to chat about how it came about. Shared services like this are going to be valuable innovative steps for small parliaments and I would be keen to know whether similar approaches could be successfully adopted more broadly.

Let me know when best suits in January.

In the meantime, I hope you, your families and everyone in the States Assembly and States of Deliberation have a restful Christmas break.

Best wishes,

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your kind words - it's been a terrible week for Jersey with two tragic events in the space of 2 days and so many lives lost.

Happy to have a chat in the New Year - I'm back in the office from 9th.

A very merry Christmas to you all.

Hello [REDACTED]

I hope that the Crown Dependencies meeting went well the other week (and [REDACTED] you are well rested). Lisa, I should just say that everyone at Headquarters sends their best regards and deepest sympathies over the tragic explosion in St Helier. We're all thinking of you.

One of the reasons why I wanted to get in touch is about the above advert, which I think is a brilliant development. I was wondering if in the new year you would both have some time for a Teams call to chat about how it came about. Shared services like this are going to be valuable innovative steps for small parliaments and I would be keen to know whether similar approaches could be successfully adopted more broadly.

Let me know when best suits in January.

In the meantime, I hope you, your families and everyone in the States Assembly and States of Deliberation have a restful Christmas break.

Best wishes,

Dear [REDACTED]

Lisa is of course right, you are the Channel Islands' favourite HQ officer.

The Pan-Island Commissioner is a really good idea and like Lisa I am really happy to talk about it. In addition I think there is value in looking into having some sort of CPA sub group for those who oversee parliamentary standards.

[REDACTED] but free after that.

Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Many thanks to you both for the swift response. Perhaps I can suggest [REDACTED] as a possible time. That should give plenty of recovery from excess Christmas cheer and jellag. Let me know if that works and I can send around a time slot.

Hello everyone

Attachment exempt under Article 25

My apologies, I understand some of you had difficulties last week opening the password controlled PDF of the applications. I've now attached all of them in a PDF (non-password controlled) - please note there have been six more applications since Wednesday.

Let me know if you have any problems opening this one.

Best wishes
