<sup>1</sup> Note that since the response provided by the Minister in February 2024, further individuals have either been charged or were requested to attend a Parish Hall Enquiry.

<sup>2</sup> The reasons why an investigation may be closed before charge includes the following:-

- Further action being undertaken by another agency when deemed more appropriate.
- Not in the public interest to proceed.
- No suspect identified.
- Suspect identified and offence admitted, but victim does not support prosecution.
- Suspect identified but cannot be located or has left the island.
- Suspect, victim or witness has died.
- Suspect is below the criminal age of responsibility.
- Insufficient evidence to charge.
- Suspect, victim or witness is too ill.

<sup>3</sup> Some individuals are repeat victims, hence the numbers for each individual year do not correspond with the 5-year total.
