Good day [REDACTED], hope all is well and your golf is even better.

I am sorry to send you this e-mail exchange. However, as we have had such a good relationship over the years, we feel that you should be aware so that similar situations do not arise for others.

We are extremely disappointed and very surprised that a representative of Mining Indaba sent the contents of a private e-mail to a journalist. Client confidentiality and data protection is a requisite of any relationship. Regrettably a Mining Indaba representative appears to have acted unprofessionally, albeit we are sure without any adverse intent or malice.

We do hope that we are able to catch up at a future date.

Best wishes

Wayne

Hi Wayne,

Yes, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both played but I did not know that they're from Jersey as their registration forms both state "United Kingdom" and not "Jersey."

As far as the email goes, I was simply providing proof that you did cancel your participation and this email was the only way that I had to do that. I apologize.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED] and yes we have met.

I believe that Jersey intermediaries [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] played together in the Mining Indaba tournament.

No problem with the truth. However can you explain why you deemed it necessary to send the contents of a private e-mail between you guys and me to a journalist?

Kind regards

Wayne

Hi Wayne,

My name is [REDACTED] and I handle the Mining Indaba Golf Day. As you may recall, we have met at a few past Mining Indaba Golf Days.

I received an email forwarded from our Marketing Director and I confirmed with Lucy Stephenson that nobody from Jersey participated in the Mining Indaba Golf Day as you and Mike had to cancel your Golf Day participation due to your flight schedule and that you were refunded. I did send her your cancelation email as proof and I have attached that email here.

As you can see, she asked further questions to her initial email. To my knowledge, there were no other guys from Jersey who played in the Golf Day. I sincerely apologize if I overstepped my bounds, but I was simply answering the questions with truthful information.

Please let me know if I can do anything else to help or if I can offer you any other information.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]

Hi Wayne,

I'm afraid that unfortunately I'm a bit in the dark about what exactly transpired except for the email that I forwarded to you from [REDACTED] with the response to Lucy. I've copied [REDACTED] herewith who will be able to shed more light on the below.

Kind regards,

The local press has published a front page headline story about Mike and I playing golf in SA. Lucy Stephenson claims that an e-mail was passed to the Jersey Evening Post and quotes the contents my e-mail to you when I informed you that we couldn't play because of flight times.

Did anyone from Mining Indaba send the e-mail?

Lucy Stephenson in her opening e-mail said "A few of our guys from Jersey joined you for the mining conference last month and took part in the golf tournament. I was wondering if you had the results from the tournament as we'd like to report on them please? ". Why did the response from [REDACTED] say the guys from Jersey had to cancel? That was not the question. I believe that 2 Jersey intermediaries did play but this is not mentioned by [REDACTED]

He then goes on to confirm it was Mike and I and confirms a refund. Why?

Kind regards

Wayne

Hi Wayne,

The does not ring any bells. However, I just got off the phone with my colleague [REDACTED] who did indeed have an email exchange with Lucy Stephenson enquiring about your participation at the MI golf tournament. I asked [REDACTED] for a copy of that communication and it is attached herewith. Please let me know if everything is OK.

Kind regards,

Hi Wayne,
Apologies for the delay replying. I have not sent any information or email communications about the MI Golf Tournament to the Jersey Evening Post or any other media for that matter. May I ask what this is about?
Kind regards,
