Eddie,

They made an application for the last TDF round in April but it fell far short of the information required from an applicant. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] To assist we appointed an account manager to them and they worked up a plan with the assistance of Jersey Business. Their application which I understand applies to next year and beyond will be considered when the panel sit next month.

It should be noted that TDF currently only has funding to 2015. The future and funding of TDF will need to be resolved early in the next administration.

For the avoidance of doubt this seems like a good event although I haven't seen the exact detail of their proposal.

Eddie,

I will find out the background and exactly what is happening here. I recall there were some issues with the organisers making a very late application and then not supplying supporting documentation as requested by the TDF panel?

Hi Ian,

I met with Eddie, Susie and Steve P yesterday. We discussed how the top positions might go, and the difficulties of getting four people into three jobs...

We have taken further soundings....and PO in the Treasury is not (in our view) an option. I personally understand that there is very recent talk that the [REDACTED] but this news, if (or when) it gets out will, I feel, be the final straw for many. Philip has to move out of T and R.

Simon

I have been asked to address your concerns re the £83k from TTS's 'Fiscal Stimulus and Urban Regeneration Projects'. It was always agreed that £83k worth of works would be funded by the States for a Parish urban project as part of the Westmount/JEC deal.

The above budget line is not solely for the use of St Helier and the original agreement between Treasury and the Parish (as set out in the minutes of the Parish Assembly) reflect that the £83k is not "new" money from Treasury.

I trust that this clarifies matters.

It's good to see that the project has finally started

Very best regards

Eddie

Subject: Sandwich Lunch

Date: Thursday, October 30, 2014 14:37 GMT

Dear All

Following on from previous emails earlier this week regarding a meeting to discuss potential appointments, I am sending this invitation from Ian to attend a sandwich lunch on Monday. Please let me know if you would prefer a salad.

Regards

Dear Simon,

The attached articles caught my eye in Tuesday's Evening Standard. Essentially, as part of the ongoing debate and where power rests in the UK, there are calls for the London Mayor and London Assembly to gain more powers.

There are ongoing discussions with Ian about who might discharge which functions and I won't steal any of Ian's thunder on his priorities and suggested portfolios.

I have offered to co-chair the 150 Day plan for St Helier with you. If Ian wants me to continue as one of his Assistant Ministers, then I could do it in that capacity. My suggestion is we also take the senior St Helier Deputy (I'm assuming that is Jackie now). As necessary we would invite the ministers for TTS, Treasury (if different) and Planning possible TTS to join the group as is necessary.

There clearly needs to be an officer group and I suggest that you appoint a single senior person from the Town Hall who could be capable of leading the 'executive' work. There are clearly going to be Financial issues to get to the bottom of on both sides. From the States side

As we had explained, any Budgetary changes will need to be reflected into the MTFP which has to be finalised by July.

I favoured a stand-alone St Helier Report and Proposition to be lodged by the CM (or Council) and co-agreed by you. You could lodge the proposal a Parish R&P. I would of course happily attend the Assembly and suggest that I suggest the Assembly would pass the proposal before the States debate.

Tomorrow I intend to do a draft terms of reference to help our thinking. I'd appreciate a chat with you about that.

Two immediate questions

1. Are you happy with this broad approach
2. Would you like to come to the London Conference on the 6th November?

I'll be working in the London office all day tomorrow and available all day.

Philip

In confidence.

Might be helpful to have a face to face discussion about this.

It would be helpful for us to have a market assessment of what prices [REDACTED] are likely to get and the longevity of these agreements.

I understood that there has been a fall in the previously quoted prices for [REDACTED] but it is expected that these will rise in the medium and long term.

Either way the [REDACTED] deal with be out into the public domain. If it is cheap then we will be told we were wrong and Rob Duhamel was right all along. If we were to accept a deal that would loose money we will be criticised.

Subject: £83k worth of works

Simon

I have been asked to address your concerns re the £83k from TTS's 'Fiscal Stimulus and Urban Regeneration
Projects'. It was always agreed that £83k worth of works would be funded by the States for a Parish urban project as part of the Westmount/JEC deal.
The above budget line is not solely for the use of St Helier and the original agreement between
Treasury and the Parish (as set out in the minutes of the Parish Assembly) reflect that the £83k is not
"new" money from Treasury.

I trust that this clarifies matters.

It's good to see that the project has finally started

Very best regards

Eddie

Subject: Sandwich Lunch

Date: Thursday, October 30, 2014 14:37 GMT

Dear All

Following on from previous emails earlier this week regarding a meeting to discuss potential appointments, I am sending this invitation from Ian to attend a sandwich lunch on Monday. Please let me know if you would prefer a salad.

Regards

Dear Simon,

The attached articles caught my eye in Tuesday's Evening Standard. Essentially, as part of the ongoing debate and where power rests in the UK, there are calls for the London Mayor and London Assembly to gain more powers.

There are ongoing discussions with Ian about who might discharge which functions and I won't steal any of Ian's thunder on his priorities and suggested portfolios.

I have offered to co-chair the 150 Day plan for St Helier with you. If Ian wants me to continue as one of his Assistant Ministers, then I could do it in that capacity. My suggestion is we also take the senior St Helier Deputy (I'm assuming that is Jackie now). As necessary we would invite the ministers for TTS, Treasury (if different) and Planning possible TTS to join the group as is necessary.

There clearly needs to be an officer group and I suggest that you appoint a single senior person from the Town Hall who could be capable of leading the 'executive' work. There are clearly going to be Financial issues to get to the bottom of on both sides. From the States side

As we had explained, any Budgetary changes will need to be reflected into the MTFP which has to be finalised by July.

I favoured a stand-alone St Helier Report and Proposition to be lodged by the CM (or Council) and co-agreed by you. You could lodge the proposal a Parish R&P. I would of course happily attend the Assembly and suggest that I suggest the Assembly would pass the proposal before the States debate.

Tomorrow I intend to do a draft terms of reference to help our thinking. I'd appreciate a chat with you about that.

Two immediate questions

1. Are you happy with this broad approach
2. Would you like to come to the London Conference on the 6th November?

I'll be working in the London office all day tomorrow and available all day.

Philip

Subject: Outgoing Minister's Responsibilities

Dear Rob

It has been brought to my attention that you have been printing significant quantities of material at South Hill over the past few days. I would like to remind you that as an outgoing States Member you may only copy personal material and any material you might have stored in relation to your constituency work during your term of office that is not Planning related.

You are not permitted to copy or print any material that is related to your duties as the Minister for Planning and Environment, this remains the property of the States of Jersey. Any material you might have in your possession as a non-States Member after Monday, 3rd November, 2014 may not be divulged to any third party and may not be used at any future date in connection with an applicant's Planning application or on any environmental related matter. I would remind you of your responsibilities under the Data Protection Law and if you require any clarification, I suggest you speak directly to the Data Protection Commissioner.

I am sorry that this letter comes very late in the day, but you must be aware of your responsibilities as an outgoing States Member and certainly of your position with regard to information you may have in your possession that would be classed as privileged and not available to any member of the public under normal circumstances.

Regards

Ian

Ok thanks.

Very good day in London - speak tomorrow. Need to confirm inter alia sir p's remit. He was a bit territorial during an hour tel conversation. Suggested that he appoint me as his assistant. Probably the best way forward for international tax.

Alan has been stirring pot about 'why was Philip in Berlin?' Shouldn't it have been you? Philip (B)....

We also need to help Eddie. It's not in bag at all.

Having dinner with Kristina who sends best wishes and is very happy. Although we need to make sure all ministers are prepared for a challenge:

Spoke to [REDACTED] Solvable but needs direction from us - people were unaware of risks which im astonished about. I've checked this out with contacts and we must avoid a potentially very toxic PR problem. Has potential to re-toxify jersey brand.

All ok and all possible.

Andium Strategic Business Plan 2014 – 2019

I write to you in your capacity as the Guarantor of Andium Home Ltd. on behalf of the States to confirm my agreement to the Andium Homes' Strategic Business Plan 2014 – 2019.

Having considered the Business Plan, the Strategic Housing Unit (SHU) is satisfied that it makes an appropriate contribution to the requirements for affordable housing provision over the period.

In confirming my agreement, I wish to draw your attention to several matters in the Business Plan which I believe should be taken into consideration when giving your approval.
