

Terms of Reference: Gas Ministerial Group

Introduction

On the recommendation of officers, the Council of Ministers agreed that a Gas Ministerial Group (“GMG”) should be established to continue ensuring good, shared situational awareness and regular oversight of workstreams and any issues arising as relates to gas.

Purpose

The purpose of the GMG is to continue ensuring good, shared situational awareness and regular oversight of workstreams and any issues arising as relates to gas.

Membership

The membership shall constitute:

1. Chief Minister (Chair)
2. Minister for the Environment (Vice-Chair);
3. Minister for Infrastructure; and
4. Minister for Justice and Home Affairs.

Membership and/or attendance may be extended to include wider political representation, when deemed appropriate by the Chair, and the terms of reference updated accordingly.

The GMG shall receive support from departments whose roles and responsibilities relate to gas.

Meeting frequency

The GMG is expected to meet monthly or as and when deemed necessary by the Chair.

Record keeping and administrative support

The Ministerial Office will provide administrative support in relation to scheduling of meetings and preparation of agendas, and the States Greffe will support with the preparation and maintenance of minutes.
