SCHEDULE 3

(Article 1)

QSMA WARNING

[insert Operator's name] (the “Operator”) intends to provide discretionary investment management services (the “Services”) to you, its client(s), in connection with a segregated managed account which it is intended will be a Qualifying Segregated Managed Account (a “QSMA”) pursuant to the provisions of the Financial Services (Investment Business (Qualifying Segregated Managed Accounts – Exemption)) (Jersey) Order 2014 (the “QSMA Order”). In respect of its provision of the Services in connection with your QSMA, the Operator, when in compliance with the conditions specified in the QSMA Order, will be subject to only some, and importantly therefore not all, of the provisions of the Financial Services (Jersey) Law 1998, as amended (the “Law”). The Operator would not, in such circumstances, be registered by the Commission in respect of its provision of the Services even though the Operator may be registered pursuant to the Law to conduct investment business. Additionally, whilst the Operator is required by the QSMA Order to be registered pursuant to the Law to conduct fund services business in at least one relevant class of such activity, such licensing will not apply to the Operator's activities and provision of the Services in connection with your QSMA.

Participation in a QSMA in respect of which the Operator is placing reliance on the QSMA Order (such QSMA, a “Relevant QSMA”) is only suitable for professional or highly sophisticated and experienced investors. In addition, participation in a Relevant QSMA is intended only for those making the prescribed minimum financial contribution or commitment of US$1 million (or currency equivalent). (If you intend to become a joint owner of a Relevant QSMA but your own financial contribution would be less than such amount, you should take particular care to ensure that participation in such QSMA is suitable for you). Investment in a Relevant QSMA may involve special risks that could lead to the loss of all or a substantial portion of your investment as well as the possibility of incurring financial liabilities in excess of your investment. You are wholly responsible for ensuring that all aspects of your proposed participation in a Relevant QSMA and the risks involved are acceptable to you.

It must be distinctly understood that the Jersey Financial Services Commission: (i) has not evaluated or approved your QSMA; and (ii) does not take any responsibility for the financial soundness of a party's participation in a Relevant QSMA or for the correctness of any statements made, or opinions expressed, with regard to the same by any party. The Commission is protected by the Law against liability arising from the discharge of its functions thereunder.
